DEPARTMENT OF SANSKRIT

Session: July,2021 – June,2022

Programme Number 1

Title of the Programme : রুদ্রদামার জুনাগড় অভিলেখ বিষয়ে তিন দিনের কর্মশালা

Date of Programme : 10/05/22, 12/05/22 & 15/05/22

Introduction : The Junagadh inscription of Rudradaman, also known as Girnar Rock inscription is written in 150 A.D. The text is in Sanskrit language and entirely in prose. This finely written text is introduced in the new CBCS syllabus of West Bengal State University. How to read an inscription and the history behind such text is altogether a new thing to us. Hence, we, the Department of Sanskrit, organised a three-day online and offline mixed workshop in order to make the students familiar with it.

Brief report on the programme (Different achievements and benefits of the programme) :

Smt. Suparna Sengupta, Assistant Professor of Sanskrit, Sister Nibedita Govt. General Degree College for Girls, Alipore, gladly took the responsibility and delivered several talks for three days. Both the students and teachers enjoyed the workshop. Students took part in the question answer session spontaneously and got benefitted from her generous outlook towards ancient past.
