

Title: Awareness Programme on Gender, Sexual Harassment and the Functioning of ICC

Date: 11th September 2018

Time: 12 noon

Venue: Seminar Hall, Annex Building

Number of Student Participants: 175

Objective: To spread awareness about gender related issues, particularly sexual harassment and the role of the Internal Complaints Committee in tackling such problems.

Context: Gender based discrimination and various forms of sexual harassment are a cause of major concern in our society. In order to combat these problems spreading awareness and sensitizing the younger generations about these evils is of utmost importance.

Practice: An awareness programme was organized for the students of the newly admitted First Year students to make them aware of the issues pertaining to gender and sexual harassment and the role of the ICC in preventing and mitigating cases of sexual harassment in the college. Professor Ruchira Goswami of National University of Juridical Sciences, Kolkata, spoke about the various forms of sexual harassment and made the students aware of the provisions of the Prevention of Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace Act, 2013 and the functioning of the ICC.

Evidence of success: The programme was enthusiastically attended by 175 students from various departments namely English, Bengali, Philosophy, Political Science, Geography, Botany and Economics. The speaker addressed the various queries and doubts of the students during a long interactive discussion which immensely helped the students understand their legal rights even beyond the specific topic of the programme. Hence, this programme will definitely benefit the students and go a long way in ensuring a safer workplace for them.

Problems Encountered: Though the programme was meant for the students of all the departments, it was not attended by quite a few departments. The lack of response of these departments was a stumbling block in the way of the full success of the programme.
