1. We are grateful to the alumni association and faculty members for extending their help to secure data and smart phones for needy students.
2. The Routine committee is thanked for providing a centralized routine for the smooth running of online classes.
3. The coordinator thanked the faculty members for extending their support to the Amphan cyclone victims by contributing to the state relief fund and by trying to motivate students to help in the relief work in their localities.
4. Arpita Sengupta remarked that due to power disruption in several areas of south Bengal following the Amphan cyclone, many students could not join online classes for a week or more.
