ABOUT BARASAT GOVT. COLLEGE

The cultural heritage of Barasat is very rich and the light of the Bengal Renaissance has also touched its soil. Bankim Chandra Chatterjee, was the first Indian Deputy Magistrate of this town. Stalwarts like Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar, Peary Charan Sarkar, Kalikrishna Mitra were known for undertaking several social reformative actions in Barasat, including the development of education, especially women's education. Established in 1950, Barasat Government College inherits this glorious cultural past. Presently the college is affiliated to the West Bengal State University and offers Honours courses in 13 different humanities and science subjects, 2 General courses and autonomous Post Graduate courses in four subjects viz. Botany, Zoology, Physics and Bengali. The College is in the vicinity of Kolkata and is about 23 kilometer from Sealdah Station with frequent local train services. It can be reached by road easily through NH12 from Kolkata.
