CELEBRATION OF TEACHERS DAY 2019 - DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

This day was celebrated with high enthusiasm and was full of enjoyment.

DATE – 05.09.2019

Brief Report:-

The undergraduate and post-graduate students of P.G. Department of Botany celebrated the Teachers Day with the teachers of Botany department. The students beautifully decorated the seminar room of the department. All of the teachers and all the students were a part of the celebration. The students showed their homage to the teachers through singing, dance and other programmes. They also handed over gifts to their teachers as a token of love and respect. A beautifully decorated cake was cut by the head of the department. It was distributed amongst everyone. The programme ended with complete happiness and excitement.
