WORKSHOP FOR TEACHERS
ON CREATIVE AND MEDIA
WRITING c&M

English Depar... 25/6/2020
to Ashis, shilajit

Dear All,

Due to the outbreak of the Covid 19 pandemic we were forced to postpone the creative and media writing workshop indefinitely. Since the situation remains uncertain we have decided to shift the programme to a virtual platform. Our resource persons, Smt. Sumita Banerjee and Smt. Indrani Chakraborti have kindly agreed to the change, and suiting their convenience, we have decided on the following schedule:

Media writing workshop on Saturday 27/06/2020 from 11.00 a.m. to 01.00 p.m.

Creative writing workshop on Sunday 28/06/2020 from 11.00 a.m. to 01.00 p.m.

E-certificates will be issued to all registered participants. Both sessions will be held on Google meet and would require some writing and interaction. The invitation link will be emailed to all who have registered, along with a brief overview of the sessions.

Looking forward to having you all with us for both sessions.

Warm regards,
Swaty Mitra

Introduction: This workshop meant for teachers aimed to equip them with techniques to manage skill enhancement courses included in the CBCS regulation.

Brief Report: The first day of the workshop was conducted by Ms. Indrani Chakrabarti whose long experience as the Content Head of Radio Mirchi, Kolkata made her the right person to guide the participants through the nitty-gritty of Media Writing. She not only talked about the specific demands of different media including social media, but also advised the participants on how to create engaging content. The programme ended with a short hands-on session and interaction.

On the second day Dr. Sumita Bannerjea dealt with various ways of approaching Creative Writing. Since the target audience was teachers she focused mostly on the methods they could use in Creative Writing classes. This entire session was interactive and ended with a hands-on session where the participants wrote and presented mini sagas.

The small group of participants (11 persons) meant that everyone got individual attention and could enrich themselves about these topics newly introduced into the syllabus.
