

PAL: Departmental Reunion

Date of Programme: 06.08.2022

Introduction: The Department of English organised 'Pal', the farewell programme of SEM 6 (2019-2022) cum departmental reunion for the alumni on 06.08.2022. The alumni of 2021, 2020, 2019 and 2018 and some from even earlier batches were present to witness and participate in the event.

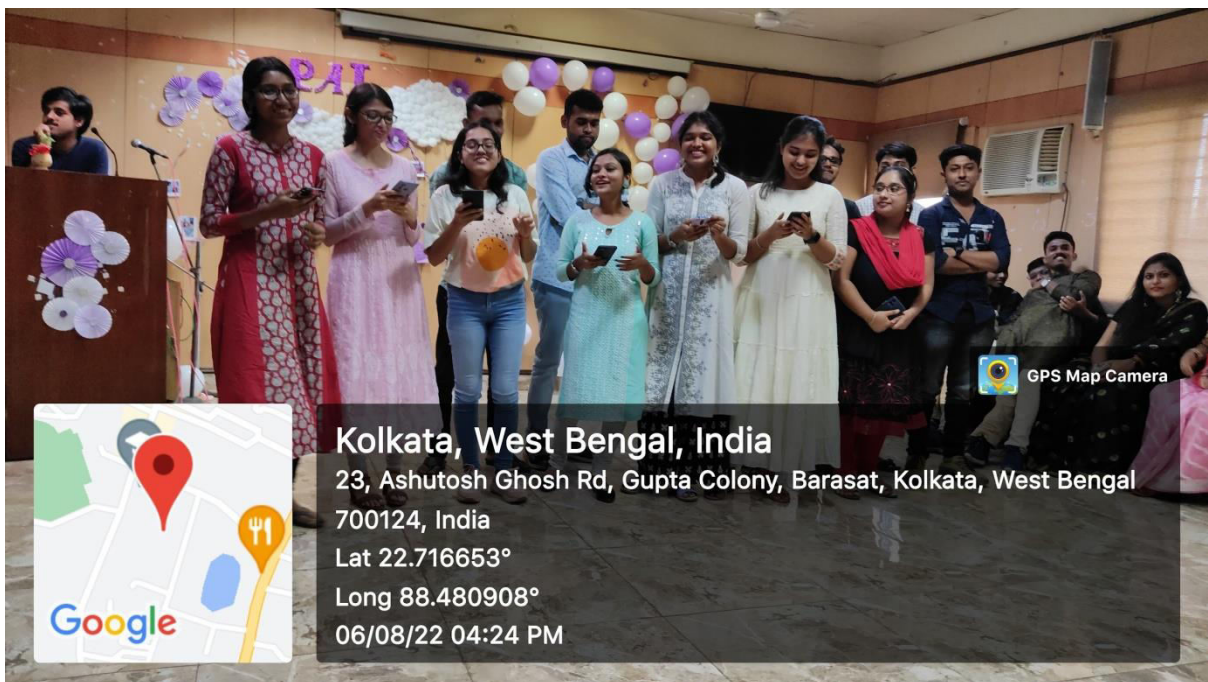

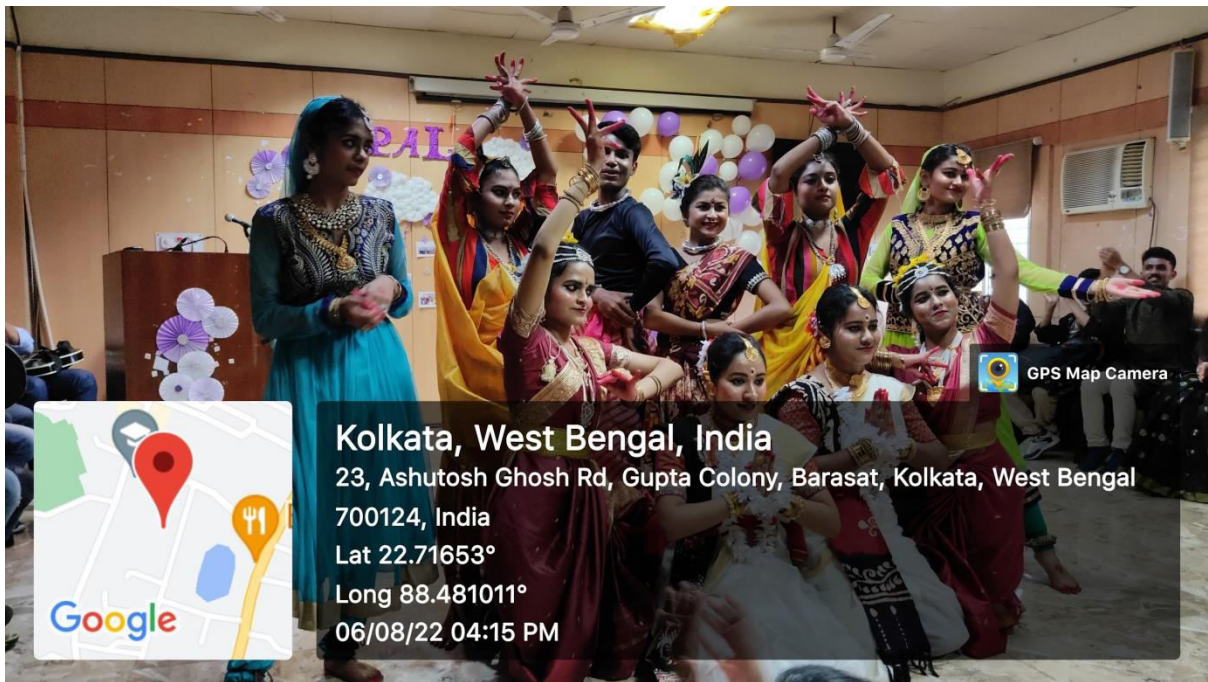

Brief Report on the Programme: In the opening ceremony a solo dance 'Madhur Murati' was performed, followed by a 'Welcome Note'. On the hosting of SEM 4 (2020-2023) and SEM 2 (2021-2024) the respected Professors, Principal, TCS were felicitated. The programme continued with a few more vibrant group songs, dances and recitations interspersed with addresses by Teaching Alumni. The skits 'Refund' by current students and 'Lockdown Saatkahon' enacted by alumni were the main attractions of the programme. The seniors were given saplings by the current students. Then, Prof. Ambarish Sen addressed the audience emphasizing the need to keep such exchanges flowing. The programme concluded thereafter with a 'Mash-up Song' and a Mash-up Group Dance 'Jai Ho' on the theme of the cultural diversity of India.

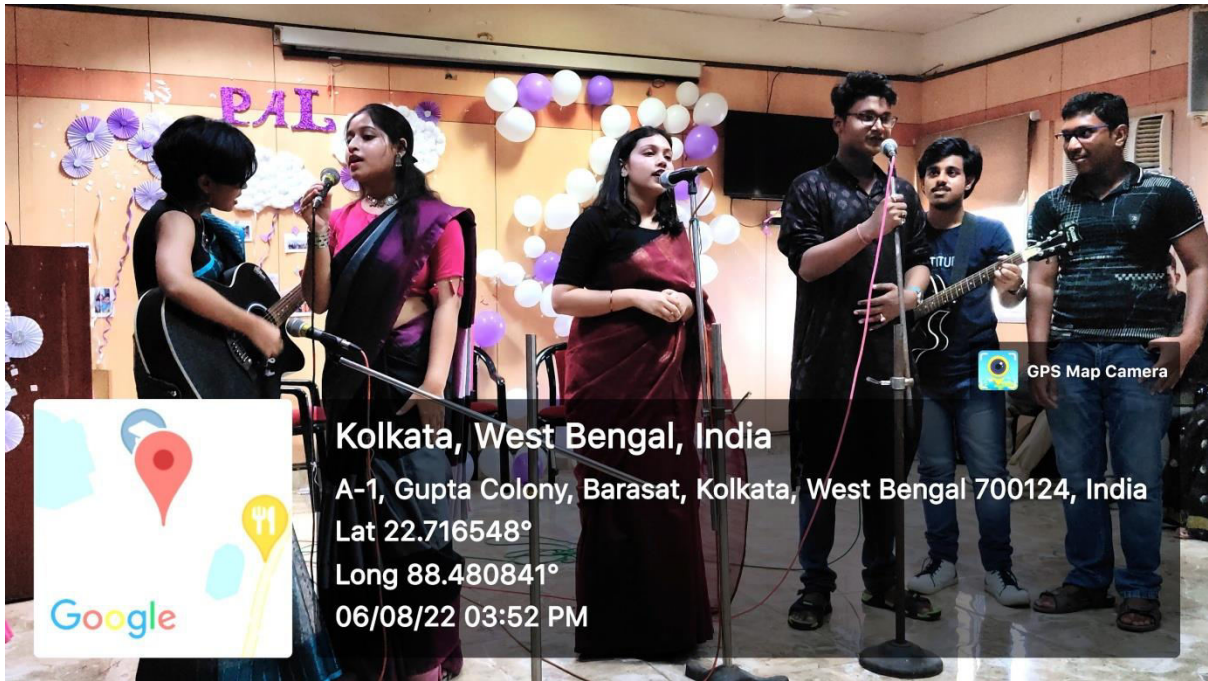

The programme promoted a bonhomie among the students of the department, both past and present. The established alumni inspired the current students and the fresh graduates by sharing their own experiences. Thus, the programme helped to strengthen bonds among the students and inculcate values of friendship and camaraderie.
