Album Department of Philosophy

Department Of Philosophy

Department of Philosophy Barasat Government College was established in 1950. Percentage of female students is much higher. Though majority of the students come from financially weak family, they try their best to concentrate in their academic and co-curricular activities. In our Department there is very healthy relation between teachers and students. Philosophy is highly rich in cross cutting issue. Students from different disciplines opt for MDC ethics/ SEC- professes ethics. We - all the stakeholders of this dept -firmly believe that practice of philosophy can change not only an individual, but also our society. We are committed towards restoring Indian heritage and culture. Our journey, from syllabus to cultural programme- all are the exhibitions of the same.
