

Department of Philosophy Report on Online Class during Pandemic

Department of Philosophy, Barasat Government College performed extensively during pandemic. Head of the department along with other faculties extended their maximum effort for continuing smooth teaching-learning as far as possible. Students of all semesters and all faculties were well trained and updated for receiving Google classroom teaching-learning method. Thus, making without any delay, department switched to complete online mode as soon as the Pandemic was announced and offline system was suspended. Most of the communications between students and faculties and amongst faculties were made on WhatsApp, forming class-based or department-based groups. Many students, residing in remote areas, faced internet issues. To address the same, faculties provided audio recordings of the classes both on WhatsApp and Google classrooms. Evaluation process, such as class-tests, internal and End-semester examinations, held online system as per the university guidelines, for which all students were technically equipped with. Frequent departmental meetings were held to accommodate maximum benefits for the students. Several counselling process- psychological- financial- academic, held with students for their overall wellbeing. Parent-teacher meet held to know students' vaccination status. Department takes huge pride in mentioning that department, apart from the regular teaching, successfully organised- 2 I CPR sponsored Webinars, 1 Workshop in collaboration with WBSU, 1 Peer Talk, 1 Invited Psychological Counselling during this tough time. For this enormous endeavour, department of Philosophy deeply acknowledge and sincerely thankful to the college authority, all parents and students for their prompt cooperation. Here are some drive links and photographs shared to capture departmental journey during pandemic.
