1. Name of the program: Sanskrit Day

Date: 21.08.19

Introduction: Sanskrit Day is celebrated throughout the country to spread awareness about Sanskrit on the auspicious occasion of Shravana Purnima or Raksha Bandhan.

Brief Description: This year students celebrated the Sanskrit Day by conducting a cultural program. Students initiated the program by chanting Sanskrit stotras. They also performed song, dance and recitation. Their performance was very much enjoyable. Ex-students were also invited in this wonderful occasion. Each and every student felt proud to be a part of this Department.

2. Name of the program: Seminar on Indian Polity

Date: 20.09.19

Introduction: Under CBCS system a new topic was introduced in UG syllabus on Indian Polity and various social institutions. Therefore, we have arranged for a seminar to help students grasp the topic and grow their interest in this subject.

Brief Description: Resource person Dr. Anindya Bandyopadhyay, Assistant Professor of Sanskrit, Kalyani University notified about the topic by providing study materials from various sources. Students were largely benefitted by his valuable speech.

3. Name of the program: Workshop on Inscription and ancient Indian scripts

Date: 24.02.2020

Introduction: Under CBCS system a new topic was introduced in UG syllabus on Inscriptions and ancient Indian scripts. Therefore, we have arranged for a one-day workshop to help students grasp the topic and grow their interest in this subject.

Brief Description: Resource persons Dr. Aniruddha Bagchi and Dr. Somnath Sarkar were invited for this purpose. Dr. Bagchi, Assistant Professor of Sanskrit, Krishnagar Womens' college, simplified the characteristics of inscriptions and made the topic crystal clear to the students. He also threw light on the methods of reading inscriptions. Dr. Sarkar, Associate Professor of Sanskrit, Kanchrapara College, clarified the emergence of Indian scripts from Brahmi and evolution of various scripts through ages. Students loved the crisp way of his teaching.
