Annual Report of College Students Grievance Redressal Cell

Academic Year: 2022-2023

The functions of the College Student Grievance Redressal Sub-Committee are to look into the complaints or suggestions lodged by any students regarding academics, disputes, infrastructure, library, administration, etc. The College Student Grievance Redressal Committee is also empowered to intervene into matters of any kind of harassment or disputes arising among the students of the college. This year the Sub-committee received some complains which are as follows:

- damage of instruments
- drinking water related problem
- unhygienic washroom condition
- poor internet connection
- seminar and training organization
- purchase of books in the library
- installation of sanitary pad vending machine

In the nine (9) subsequent meetings the above issues were addressed and discussed elaborately. Then the committee recommended for the timely and convincing disposal of the problems to the higher authority to the utter satisfaction of the aggrieved and the respondents.
