channels of communication and cooperation that will promote and advance, to the best efforts and as far as practicable

- a) Joint research projects/publications to be pursued.
- b) Science and Humanities departments to exchange students for the internship programmes included under NEP. Faculty/Research guides to be shared for the 4th year research project paper for all common departments, as and when necessary.
- c) Faculty and student exchange based on reciprocity; eg, collaborative NSS programmes; collaborative gender sensitisation programmes to be organised.
- d) Team taught courses (including online courses): For example 2nd Party to offer the 1st Party (BGC) the ongoing Communicative English course of the 2nd Party (BNC).
- e) Joint organisation of short-term continuing educational programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculties to participate therein.
- f) Collaborative seminars/workshops/conferences/academic enrichment programmes on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty and students to participate therein.
- g) Faculties of Parties 1&2 to be involved in Classes at each other's institutions for specific modules and in departments where the need has been ascertained by the institutional heads. These classes will be conducted in the Compact Module system where continuous classes will be scheduled in an arrangement for one or two weeks as per the requirements of the syllabus and the students.
- h) The list provided above is not exhaustive and that other items or elements, not specifically mentioned, may also be included.

1.2 Both the Parties shall keep each other informed of potential opportunities and shall share all information that may be relevant to secure additional opportunities for one another.

1.3 The First Party and Second Party must respect each other's intellectual property and in case of disputes, if any, relating to any aspects of academic cooperation, The Heads of both Colleges will jointly resolve the dispute in a spirit of independence, mutual respect, and shared responsibility.

1.4 Both the Parties mutually agree not to include any financial transaction during the execution of this MoU.

1.5 Neither Party shall be held responsible for non-fulfillment of their respective obligation under this MoU due to circumstances beyond their control but not limited to pandemic, war, flood etc. If such a condition continues beyond six months, the parties shall then mutually decide about the future course of action.
